

To: Climate Change Authority

I am writing because I believe the RET target for 2020 should be at least DOUBLED, so that Australia can more actively reduce its carbon emissions. There should be no consideration given to reducing this target, particularly in light of strong scientific evidence that we need to act more decisively to develop clean, renewable energy. If Germany can do it, why can't we?

Yours sincerely

Pamela Reeves

██████████
██████████ NSW ██████████