

I have read the modelling document and I would like to recommend the introduction of a Carbon Tax to put a price on emitting greenhouse gases that are directly contributing to global warming. I believe this is the best path forward. I also commend you on including mention of Telsa's Powerwall battery in the modelling document.